

Adeline Mussat

Partner

Description

Adeline Mussat has been assisting companies for 25 years in private litigation within the scope of her expertise.

More specifically, she works in the industrial and construction sectors for industrial groups, GEs, ETIs and SMEs, which she defends on a daily basis in the context of legal appraisals and civil or commercial litigation.

It has a thorough knowledge of the entire legal chain and ensures rigorous management of the cases entrusted to it in conjunction with its clients and all associated parties (insurers, brokers, technical and financial experts).

Experiences

Associate lawyer, then Partner at MUSSAT & LANDAULT (1996-2021)

Formation

Certificate of aptitude for the profession of lawyer (1995)

Master of Private Law – University of Paris X Nanterre