

Bertrand Moutte

Lawyer

Description

Bertrand Moutte has been a member of the Lyon Bar since January 2019.

He mainly advises and acts in litigation on all issues related to general public law, public business law, public contracts, public service concessions and complex contractual arrangements.

For the past two years, he has also been developing his skills in real estate law and construction law, advising project owners or project managers, in particular during appraisals.

Bertrand Moutte also assists numerous semi-public and public limited companies in the management of their activities.

Bertrand Moutte brings his expertise in association and foundation law and assists these structures in their operations (drafting of articles of association, administrative procedures, etc.) and in the implementation of their projects.

Within the framework of his activity within the firm, he assists public and private individuals in the preparation, implementation and execution of their projects.
