

Caroline Bales

Lawyer

Description

Caroline Bales has been a member of the Bordeaux Bar for 10 years and joined the firm in May 2022.

During her years of individual practice, Caroline BALEES has developed a particular expertise in labor law.

Her experience guarantees her a great mastery of this constantly evolving field.

Caroline Bales is also a member of the Institute of Labor Law of the Bordeaux Bar.

In a context of increasing complexity of social legislation, Caroline Bales puts all her skills, rigor and dynamism at the service of Adaltys' clients, to assist them in managing the numerous issues raised by the conclusion, execution and termination of employment contracts.

Caroline Bales' interventions extend to all branches of the private sector as well as to the specific sector of the public service.

Caroline Bales' actions can be in the context of litigation or in the form of legal assistance and advice.

Experiences

1. • Cabinet individuel (2012 – 2022)

Formation

2. • Membre de l'Institut de Droit social du Barreau de Bordeaux (2014)
3. • Certificat d'Aptitude à la Profession d'Avocat (2010 – 2012)
4. • Master II en Droit des relations de travail dans l'entreprise (2008 – 2009)
5. • Master I en Droit du travail et de la protection sociale (2007 – 2008)

Langues

6. French
7. English