

Charles Corcia

Lawyer

Description

After nearly two years with DS Avocats, Charles Corcia joined Adaltys' commercial law department in 2024 as an associate.

Charles handles litigation, particularly in all matters relating to product liability, and has expertise in issues of hidden defects, delivery in conformity, and liability for defective products. He works primarily in the automotive and agricultural equipment sectors.

This work has enabled him to develop significant experience in legal expertise.

Charles also assists his clients in customer relationship management and pre-litigation and pre-trial matters. He also has experience in general criminal law and business criminal law.
