

Cléa Moore

Lawyer

Description

Cléa Moore joined Adaltys in 2024, working in the Criminal Law department headed by Sylvie Le Damany.

She mainly works in criminal law, compliance, and business ethics, as well as criminal and civil litigation.

Cléa also assists Edouard Lemoalle on issues related to the GDPR and cybersecurity.

Trained in French law and Anglo-American common law systems, Cléa has a dual legal background that allows her to work in both French and English.

Experiences

- Student – lawyer, final intern then legal advisor at ADALTYS in criminal business law (2024)
- Student lawyer, work-study program in general and criminal business law at Cabinets Ouaknine and Dumesnil (2023)
- Intern in criminal law and business compliance at Enedis (2022)
- Intern in general criminal and business law at Cabinet Riberolles (2021)
- Intern in business law at Bird & Bird (2019)

Formation

- Certificate of Competence to Practice Law, EFB (2024)
- LL.M., Duke University, USA (2022- 2023)
- Master II in International Criminal and Business Law, Paris I Panthéon-Sorbonne (2020-2021)
- Master I in Criminal Law and Criminal Sciences, Toulouse I Capitole (2019-2020)
- Double degree in French and English Law, Toulouse I Capitole & University of Essex (2016-2019)

Langues

- French
- English
- Spanish