Coline Bonnet-Abbou

Lawyer

Description

Coline Bonnet-Abbou joined Adaltys in January 2024.

She provides legal assistance and drafting services, as well as litigation in the field of public business law.

Coline Bonnet-Abbou's practice covers all aspects of public procurement law, from the drafting to the award and execution of contracts (public procurement contracts, concessions, partnership agreements, complex contractual arrangements).

It has also developed specific expertise in contract enforcement. She assists public bodies and private operators in disputes concerning the validity and early termination of contracts, settlement of accounts, and contractual and extra-contractual liability.
It also advises public-sector players on all matters relating to the development and occupation of their assets (AOT, BEA, transfer, acquisition, exchange).

She also advises on private contract law.

Alongside Clément Nourrisson, Coline Bonnet-Abbou has developed expertise in visual pollution, outdoor advertising, local advertising regulations and the local outdoor advertising tax (TLPE).
