

Emilie Saint-Lager

Lawyer

Description

After an international experience in companies and law firms, Emilie Saint-lager joined ERNST & YOUNG in 2000 as a lawyer and then as a lawyer in the business law department.

At Adaltys since 2013, she advises and litigates on all issues related to regulatory and operational urban planning and environmental law (urban planning authorizations, PLU, ICPE litigation), as well as on commercial urban planning, environmental law, and development and land issues.

For local authorities, developers, associations and individuals.

Experiences

- Corporate Lawyer – Templeton Global Strategic Services (Grand Duchy of Luxembourg)
- Lawyer in a law firm – Alfa Monaco (Principality of Monaco)
- Business Lawyer (Ernst & Young)
- Lawyer in urban planning and environmental law (Aklea Société d'avocats)

Formation

- Master of Science and Technology Trilingual Business Lawyer (double major in business law and foreign languages)
- DEA in Private Law

Langues

- French
- English (courant)
- German