Floriane Grelot

Tender Response Manager

Description

Floriane Grelot has been a development manager for over ten years, initially working in real estate development and then in an architecture firm.

Floriane joined the firm in 2024 as a Tender Response Manager. As part of her role, Floriane works closely with all staff members and offices to coordinate responses to tenders.

Formation

- 2006 DUT (University Technical Diploma) in Information and Communication – University of Besançon
- 2007 University Diploma in International Communication – University of Manchester
- 2011 Bachelor's degree in Administration and Management of Cultural Enterprises – University of Savoie

Langues

- French