

Joé Mendes Monteiro

Lawyer

Description

Joé Mendes Monteiro is a lawyer and later an associate at Adaltys Paris. His practice focuses on general public law, public contracts, public property and urban planning law.

Joé Mendes Monteiro assists public entities and private operators in the definition and conclusion of contracts, in particular public service concessions and delegations, and also assists them in matters of land and urban planning law.

Experiences

1. • Jurist then Lawyer – Adaltys law firm (2021)
2. • Student lawyer, legal department of the City of Biarritz (janvier-juillet 2020)

Formation

3. • Certificate of aptitude for the legal profession (2021)
4. • Master 2 Real Estate and Construction Law – University of Paris 2 Panthéon-Assas (2019)
5. • Master 2 Public Business Law – Université Paris Saclay (2018)
6. • Master 1 General Public Law – University of Paris 1 Panthéon – Sorbonne (2017)

Langues

7. • French
8. • English