

Mathieu Ligneau

Lawyer

Description

Mathieu Ligneau was admitted to the Rennes Bar in 2023.

After completing his final internship as a student lawyer in Adaltys' institutional law department for local authorities, their groupings and intercommunality law, he joined the Rennes office as an associate alongside Lucie Paitier.

Mathieu Ligneau advises and litigates on all issues relating to general administrative law (public domainality, administrative acts), energy law (electricity distribution and production), and town planning and environmental law (town planning authorizations, environmental authorizations).

Experiences

– Associate lawyer with Adaltys Avocats since 2023

– PPI internship at the Conseil d'Etat, Section du rapport et des études, Délégation à l'exécution des décisions de justice – 2021/2022

Formation

– Université Jean Moulin Lyon 3 – Master 2 de droit public fondamental

– Université Jean Moulin Lyon 3 – Master 1 de droit public général

Langues

- French
- English