

Mathilde Triantafyllou

Lawyer

Description

After completing her final internship at DRAI associés and her PPI at the Administrative Court of Appeal of Versailles, Mathilde Triantafyllou joined Adaltys as an associate in December 2019.

Mathilde advises and litigates on issues related to general public law, public procurement and local government law.

She assists private operators and local authorities in setting up and monitoring the execution of their projects.

Experiences

1. – Lawyer then lawyer within Adaltys since December 2021
2. – Student lawyer at DRAI Associés (January 2021 – July 2021)
3. – Student lawyer at the Administrative Court of Appeal of Versailles (July 2020 – December 2020)
4. – Lawyer at the legal support office of the City of Paris (2018)

Formation

5. – Certificate of aptitude for the legal profession (2021)
6. – Master II – Law and Management of local authorities – University of Paris X (2018)
7. – Master I – General Public Law – University of Paris X (2017)

Langues

8. French
9. English