

Nubia Laurendeau

Lawyer

Description

Nubia has been a lawyer since 2021 and joined Adaltys Avocats in May 2025.

She provides both advisory and litigation services on a wide range of issues relating to energy law, public contract law, and public property law. She advises public entities and private operators, particularly in the development, structuring, and monitoring of renewable energy projects.

She has acquired particular expertise in infrastructure projects while working in the legal department of a Canadian construction group, where she assisted teams with contractual and operational issues.

Experiences

- Associate lawyer at Adaltys Avocats since May 2025
- Employed lawyer at Pomerleau in Montreal, Canada (November 2023 to April 2025)
- Associate lawyer at Racine law firm in Paris (July 2020 to June 2023)
- Trainee lawyer at Gide Loyrette Nouel law firm in Paris (January 2020 to July 2020)

Formation

- Quebec Bar Association license (2023)
- Certificate of competence to practice law (2020)
- Master's degree in Public Economic Law, Panthéon-Assas University Paris II (2017)
- Master 1 in General Public Law, Panthéon-Sorbonne University Paris I (2016)
- Bachelor's degree in Law, University of Angers (2015)

Langues

- French
- English