

Octavie Biechler

Lawyer

Description

After nearly two years of internships in digital and personal data law and obtaining her certificate of aptitude for the legal profession, Octavie Biechler joined ADALTYIS in January 2023 as an associate to Edouard Lemoalle, in the Data, Digital and Cybersecurity department.

Octavie has been trained in both French and English Common Law, and is fluent in French, English and Italian.

She advises and litigates on all matters relating to personal data law, technology law and cybersecurity.

She also assists Sylvie le Damany on RGPD issues related to compliance, in particular concerning professional alerts.

Finally, she develops with Edouard Lemoalle a particular expertise in the field of telecoms.

Experiences

- Associate of Edouard Lemoalle at Adaltys Avocats since January 2023
- Trainee in personal data law, intellectual property and criminal press law at Deshoulières Avocats (2022)
- Trainee in digital law, general private law and criminal press law at FWPA Avocats (2019/2020)
- Legal translator (2019/2023)
- Trainee in personal data law at ATM Avocats (2018/2019)

Formation

- Certificate of aptitude for the legal profession (2022)
- Award for the Claimant Brief of the 29th Willem C. Vis International Commercial Arbitration Moot
- LL.M. in Law of Internet Technology at Bocconi University (2020/2021)
- Double master's degree in French-English law from Paris I Panthéon-Sorbonne and King's College London (2015-2019) :
- Master I International Law at Paris I Panthéon-Sorbonne (2018/2019)
- Licence 3 French-English law at Paris I Panthéon-Sorbonne (2017/2018)
- LL.B. in English & French Law à King's College London (2015/2017)

Langues

- French
- English
- Italian