

Quentin Untermaier

Lawyer

Description

Quentin Untermaier has been a member of the Lyon Bar since 2014. He advises on issues related to environmental law, urban planning and development law. He assists local authorities and private operators, in particular on aspects related to environmental assessment and public participation procedures.

He also handles cases involving issues relating to classified installations (ICPE), waste law, polluted sites and soils, water and hydroelectricity police, nature protection, coastal law, in both advisory and litigation matters.

Quentin Untermaier teaches environmental law as part of the Master's Degree in Bioassessment of Ecosystems and Biodiversity Expertise (BEEB) at the Claude Bernard Lyon 1 University and as part of the Master's Degree in Risk and Environment at the Lyon 2 University.

He also provides training in environmental law as part of the initial and continuing education of student lawyers and lawyers at the EDARA law school. .

Experiences

- Lawyer at the Hélios Avocats law firm (January 2015 – November 2016)
- Lawyer at the ADAMAS law firm (since November 2016)

Formation

- Legal Qualification Certificate (2014)
- Master's degree in Environmental Law (2014), Environmental Law Institute – Jean Moulin Lyon 3 University.
- Master's degree in Public Business Law (2012), Law and Business Economics Institute, Jean-Moulin LYON 3 University.