

Séverine Buffet

Partner

Description

Séverine Buffet has been a member of the Lyon Bar since 2012. She advises on regulatory and operational urban planning (urban planning and planning documents, urban development plans, building authorisations), commercial urban planning, environmental law, as well as on development and land issues (right of pre-emption).

She assists local authorities throughout the procedures they implement to draw up or develop their urban planning documents (Territorial coherence scheme (SCOT- Schéma de cohérence territoriale), urban planning schemes (PLU- Plan local d'urbanisme). In addition, she defends local authorities or petitioners facing appeals and litigation against refused or issued urban planning authorisations.

Séverine Buffet regularly leads training courses in urban planning law for local authorities and Public inter-municipal cooperation institutions (EPCI- Établissement public de coopération intercommunale) (agents and elected officials), as well as for urban planners.

She is also a lecturer at the Jean Moulin Lyon III University where she teaches administrative law.
