

Valérie Laurent

General secretary

Description

Trained as a chartered accountant, Valérie Laurent has worked in chartered accountancy firms for nearly 30 years, up to the position of manager of a chartered accountancy division.

When she joined the firm as secretary general, she took over the supervision and coordination of all support functions, and ensured cross-functional management of the teams.