Virginie Corbalan

Lawyer

Description

For the past 10 years, Virginie Corbalan has been involved in all issues related to urban planning, development and land management.

She assists several local authorities in the fields of regulatory urban planning law (assistance with the drafting and development of urban planning documents: urban planning scheme (PLU- Plan local d'urbanisme), territorial coherence scheme (SCOT- Schéma de cohérence territoriale), etc.) , land occupancy authorisations (consulting, audit and securing Simplified Calls for Tenders (AOS- Appels d'Offres Simplifiés), as well as related substantive, emergency and indemnity litigation), commercial planning (advice and litigation), criminal litigation (urban planning and environment), development law (consulting and litigation), and administrative police (consulting and litigation).

She also assists several private operators in the management of their issues related to urban planning (consulting, administrative litigation, civil litigation and criminal litigation.

Experiences

- Lawyer at the CMS Bureau Francis Lefèbvre Lyon law firm (2010 -2014)

Formation

- Legal Qualification Certificate (2009)
- Master's degree in European Law, Avignon and Pays de Vaucluse University (2006)

Langues

- French
- Spanish (bilingual)