

Non-Profit Organisations And Associations Law

We assist private and public sector players in structuring projects involving the creation or intervention of non-profit organisations such as associations, endowments, associations declared to be of public utility or foundations.

We assist them from their creation to their liquidation, as well as throughout their legal, fiscal and social restructuring.

In particular, we advise them on the regulations applicable to them in terms of state aid and competition in the commercial sector.